Timbers, Lumber and Allied Toys

WHAT FUN! . . . playing with LINCOLN LOGS (round) . . . the ORIGINAL log cabin construction toy of endless possibilities . . . the toy which through happy play makes the early struggles and sturdy qualities of our pioneer forefathers become real.

LINCOLN LOG TIMBERS (square), designed especially for younger children, offer the same construction principles as the Round Lincoln Logs, but the pieces are larger. (See Tower at top of illustration.)

LINCOLN LOG LUMBER consists of Logs combined in groups for making Early American Forts, Stockades, Block-houses, Barracks and Settlers Cabins.

LINCOLN LOG FIGURES add much enjoyment to the Lincoln Log and Timber Sets. They are historically accurate, correctly proportioned and are made of practically unbreakable metal—enameled in bright durable colors. Sets marked * contain mounted figures.

50c SETS include: No. 50* Indians (6); No. 54* Cowboys (6); No. 57 Soldiers 1812 (6); No. 58* Soldiers 1776 (5); No. 65* Canadian Police (5); No. 70 Farm Set (6) and No. 80 Railroad Station Figures (7).

$1 SETS include: No. 100* Indians (12); No. 101 Indians and Pioneers (14); No. 102* Cowboys (12); No. 105* Cowboys and Indians (12); No. 140 Farm Set and Trees (12); No. 160 Trenches and Doughboys (7); No. 161* Tepees and Indians (6) and No. 162* Tents and Doughboys (6).

LINCOLN BARNYARD SET AND THE RAILROAD STATION delight both city and country children. They are made of brightly colored wood and are easily assembled. The Barnyard Set includes four fence sections and twelve metal figures. The Station Set has six figures. Both of these Sets are of the right size to use with miniature railroads.
